

UPRIGHT PINES

COMMON NAME	HEIGHT	SPREAD	DESCRIPTION	SHAPE	ZONE
Arnold's Sentinel Austrian	7m	3m	Columnar selection with tight, vertical branching.	Columnar	4
Austrian	18m	15m	Very hardy, fast grower. Salt and pollution tolerant.	Pyramidal	4
Ayacahuite	8m	4m	Slow growing with bluish needles. Less winter browning than white pine.	Pyramidal	5
Blue Japanese White	7m	3m	Long bluish needles with open, tiered branching. Blue/purple upright cones.	Upright/ Broad	4
Bristlecone	2m	1m	Unique small pine with white speckled needles. Extremely long-lived but very slow growing.	Upright	2
Contorted White	10m	3m	Needles and branches display distinctive twist.	Pyramidal	3
Emerald Arrow Bosnian	5m	2m	Dense branching and narrow growth habit. Needles are lovely deep green. Purple cones.	Pyramidal	5
Fukuzumi Japanese White	2m	Variable	Tufts of bright green needles along narrow branches. Shape irregular, can be wider than tall. Ideal specimen.	Variable	5
Golden Scot's	10m	5m	Slow growing, larger with age. Needles light green in summer, turning brilliant gold in winter. Unique.	Upright/ Broad	3
Mountain	7m	4m	Medium sized pine with long, stiff green needles.	Pyramidal	3
Pyramidal Scot's	15m	2m	Upright with blue-green colour. Lovely bark.	Pyramidal
Pyramidal White	15m	2.5m	Rapid growing narrow evergreen. Bluish needles.	Pyramidal	3
Red	25m		Picturesque and very hardy. Good for windbreaks or as a specimen. Native.	Oval	2
Scot's	18m	15m	Rapid grower that adapts to any location.	Pyramidal	3
Spaan's Dwarf Contorted	1m	1m	Sturdy open branching structure. Natural bonsai type.	Upright/ Broad	5
Swiss Stone	10m	2.5m	Narrow and slow growing. Very tidy habit.	Columnar	2
Tanyosho	2m	6m	Dense flattish parasol-like head grafted onto stem.	Upright	4
Teardrop Austrian	4m	1.5m	Rounded base tapers to a point, hence the name.	Pyramidal	4
Thunderhead Japanese Black	8m	Variable	White candles contrast with glossy green needles. Broad, upright form. Needs a sheltered location.	Upright	6

UPRIGHT PINES

Vanderwolf's Pyramid	10m	6m	Striking steel blue foliage and strong pyramidal form.	Pyramidal	3
Weeping White	Variable	Variable	Highly variable and unique shape. Dramatic in winter.	Weeping	2
White	24m	11m	Soft green needles, rapid growth. Irregular shape with age. Ontario's provincial tree. Native.	Pyramidal	3
White Mountain White	25m	15m	Vigorous pine with white and green variegated needles.	Pyramidal	3