

PINES

COMMON NAME	HEIGHT	SPREAD	DESCRIPTION	SHAPE	ZONE
Aurea Scot's	3m	7m	Slow growing, light yellow green needles, turning gold in winter.	Upright/ Broad	3
Austrian	18m	15m	Can withstand city conditions.	Pyramidal	4
Bristlecone	1m	1m	Dwarf pine, speckles on needles. Native to American Rockies.	Upright	2
Dwarf Scot's	1.75m	1.75m	Slow grower, dense horizontal branching.	Round	2
Helga Austrian	0.5m	0.5m	Slow growing with white buds.	Globe	4
Hillside Creeper Scot's	0.25m	3m	Low spreader, can be used as groundcover	Spreader	3
Japanese White	15m	15m	Long bluish needles and cones.	Upright/ Broad	4
Low Glow Japanese Red	1m	1m	Dense compact growth. Colour is bright.	Mounding	5
Mops Dwarf Mugho	1m	2m	One of the better dwarf varieties.	Mounding	3
Mugho	1m	2m	Used in foundation plantings and rockeries.	Round	1
Patio Bonsai	3m	2.5m	Compact, similar in look to Austrian. Salt tolerant.	Conical	5
Pyramidal Scot's	15m	2m	Upright with blue-green colour.	Pyramidal	4
Pyramidal White	15m	2.5m	Rapid growing narrow evergreen. Bluish needles.	Pyramidal	3
Red	25m	Variable	Picturesque, good for windbreaks or a specimen.	Oval	2
Scot's	18m	15m	Rapid grower that adapts to any location.	Pyramidal	3
Slowmound Mugho	1m	1m	Compact enough to plant in even the smallest spot.	Mounding	2
Spaan's Dwarf Contorted	1m	1m	Sturdy open branching structure. Natural bonsai type.	Upright/ Broad	5
Swiss Stone	10m	2.5m	Narrow and slow growing.	Columnar	2
Tanyosho	2m	6m	Dense flattish parasol-like top grafted onto stem.	Upright	4
Thunderhead Japanese Black	8m	Variable	White candles contrast with glossy green needles. Compact, upright form.	Upright	6
Vanderwolf's	5m	3m	Bluish tinge, great small specimen.	Upright	3
Weeping White	2m	3m	Tends to have an upright habit with a unique twist.	Weeping	2
White	24m	11m	Soft green needles, rapid growth. Irregular shape with age. Ontario's provincial tree.	Pyramidal	3
Whitebud Mugho	1m	1.5m	Dense compact evergreen.	Mounding	2